

Personnel Announcements

Anne McClure new CEO at Cabrillo Credit Union

Anne McClure

Anne McClure has been named the new chief executive officer of Cabrillo Credit Union. McClure was appointed interim CEO in May after working as the credit union's chief operations officer. She succeeds Dean Odle.

Prior to her time as the COO, McClure was the senior vice president of human resources and compliance and was responsible for hiring, training and ensuring governmental compliance. She began her career with Cabrillo in 1992 as vice president of marketing and has worked in the banking industry since 1989.

As CEO, McClure will lead a staff of 70 employees and an executive staff of four. Cabrillo Credit Union has over 22,000 member-owners and serves them through a virtual branch, five branch locations in San Diego County and with Member Solution Agents. McClure holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in English from U.C. Irvine, is a graduate of the Western CUNA Management School, is a certified Enterprise Risk Manager and completed the CUNA Compliance School..
